

ST. JOHN'S ANGLICAN CHURCH
TOORAK
EST. 1859

Seventh Sunday after the Epiphany
23 February, 2025
10am

Welcome

St. John's welcomes everyone to all services and events, regardless of age, gender, sexual orientation, race or background. This is a wonderful and historic church, founded in 1859. We are part of the Anglican Church of Australia and a member of the global Anglican Communion, comprised of 80 million people.

Worship

Regular services of worship are held each Sunday at 8am and 10am, and Wednesday at 7pm. Services are followed by times of fellowship over food and drinks. All are welcome.

Mission

Our mission is to know and love Christ and neighbour. We actively follow Jesus' command to love God, love one's neighbour and to care for all people. We regularly visit the sick, home-bound, and the dying. We care for the poor and needy through service and charitable giving, through our Opportunity Shop run in partnership with the local Catholic and Uniting churches, and by supporting the work of Anglicare, The Brotherhood of St. Laurence and The Anglican Board of Mission. Our clergy regularly baptise new members of the church, preside at weddings and care for the grieving through our funeral ministry.

Visitors

If you're visiting for the first time please introduce yourself to a welcomer or member of the clergy, and fill out the blue 'Welcome' card found at the end of every pew so we can stay in touch with you.

The Church

The church is decorated in green, the colour of Ordinary Time, the colour of vestments and altars outside of particular periods of time, such as Lent.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

THE FIRST READING Genesis 45.3-11, 15 read by Kim Collins

Joseph said to his brothers, 'I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?' But his brothers could not answer him, so dismayed were they at his presence. Then Joseph said to his brothers, 'Come closer to me.' And they came closer. He said, 'I am your brother Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt. And now do not be distressed, or angry with yourselves, because you sold me here; for God sent me before you to preserve life. For the famine has been in the land these two years; and there are five more years in which there will be neither ploughing nor harvest.

God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant on earth, and to keep alive for you many survivors. So it was not you who sent me here, but God; he has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house and ruler over all the land of Egypt. Hurry and go up to my father and say to him, “Thus says your son Joseph, God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not delay. You shall settle in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near me, you and your children and your children’s children, as well as your flocks, your herds, and all that you have. I will provide for you there – since there are five more years of famine to come – so that you and your household, and all that you have, will not come to poverty.” And he kissed all his brothers and wept upon them; and after that his brothers talked with him.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM Psalm 37.1-11, 40-41 sung by the choir

Do not vie with the wicked:

or envy those that do wrong;

For they will soon wither like the grass:

and fade away like the green leaf.

Trust in the Lord and do good:

and you shall dwell in the land

and feed in safe pastures.

Let the Lord be your delight:

and he will grant you your heart’s desire.

Commit your way to the Lord:

trust him, and he will act.

He will make your righteousness shine as clear as the light:

and your innocence as the noonday.

Be still before the Lord, and wait patiently for him:

do not be vexed when someone prospers,

when they put their evil purposes to work.

Let go of anger and abandon wrath:

let not envy move you to do evil.

For the wicked shall be cut down:

but those who wait for the Lord shall possess the land.

In a little while the ungodly shall be no more:

you will look for them in their place,

but they will not be found.
But the meek shall possess the land:
and enjoy the abundance of peace.
Deliverance for the righteous shall come from the Lord:
he is their strength in time of trouble.
The Lord will help them and deliver them:
he will save them from the ungodly and deliver them,
because they come to him for refuge.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

THE SECOND READING 1 Corinthians 15.35-50 read by Linda Gay

But someone will ask, 'How are the dead raised? With what kind of body do they come?' Fool! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. And as for what you sow, you do not sow the body that is to be, but a bare seed, perhaps of wheat or of some other grain. But God gives it a body as he has chosen, and to each kind of seed its own body. Not all flesh is alike, but there is one flesh for human beings, another for animals, another for birds, and another for fish. There are both heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the glory of the heavenly is one thing, and that of the earthly is another. There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; indeed, star differs from star in glory. So it is with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable, what is raised is imperishable. It is sown in dishonour, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. It is sown a physical body, it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a physical body, there is also a spiritual body. Thus it is written, 'The first man, Adam, became a living being'; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. But it is not the spiritual that is first, but the physical, and then the spiritual. The first man was from the earth, a man of dust; the second man is from heaven. As was the man of dust, so are those who are of the dust; and as is the man of heaven, so are those who are of heaven. Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we will also bear the image of the man of heaven. What I am saying, brothers and sisters, is this: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

THE GRADUAL HYMN 'Jesus, Lord, we look to thee'

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. Jesus, Lord, we look to thee, let us in thy name agree:
show thyself the Prince of peace;
bid all strife for ever cease. 2. Make us of one heart and mind, courteous, pitiful, and kind,
lowly, meek in thought and word,
altogether like our Lord. | 3. Let us for each other care,
each the other's burden bear;
to thy church the pattern give,
show how true believers live. 4. Free from anger and from pride, let us thus in God abide;
all the depths of love express,
all the heights of holiness. |

Please remain standing for the reading of the Gospel

THE GOSPEL Luke 6.27-38

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to St. Luke.

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

'But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you. 'If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again. But love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful. 'Do not judge, and you will not be judged;

do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven; give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back.'

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

THE SERMON The Vicar, The Revd Dr Peter French

THE ANTHEM 'A Gaelic Blessing'

John Rutter (b. 1945)

THE NICENE CREED said together, standing

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE led by Jenny Smith

The Prayers end with the following

Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers.

Grant that what we have asked in faith, we may by your grace receive, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OFFERTORY HYMN 'Sweet Sacrament Divine'

1. Sweet Sacrament divine,
hid in thine earthly home,
lo, round thy lowly shrine,
with suppliant hearts we come;
Jesus, to thee our voice we raise in songs of love and heartfelt praise:
sweet Sacrament divine.
2. Sweet Sacrament of peace,
dear home for every heart,
where restless yearnings cease
and sorrows all depart;
there in thine ear all trustfully
we tell our tale of misery:
sweet Sacrament of peace.
3. Sweet Sacrament of rest,
ark from the ocean's roar,
within thy shelter blest
soon may we reach the shore;
save us, for still the tempest raves,
save, lest we sink beneath the waves:
sweet Sacrament of rest.
4. Sweet Sacrament divine,
earth's light and jubilee,
in thy far depths doth shine
thy Godhead's majesty;
sweet light, so shine on us, we
pray,
that earthly joys may fade away:
sweet Sacrament divine.

1. God! When human bonds are broken and we lack the love or skill
to restore the hope of healing,
give us grace and make us still.
2. Through that stillness, with your Spirit
come into our world of stress,
for the sake of Christ forgiving;
all the failures we confess.
3. You in us are bruised and broken:
hear us as we seek release
from the pain of earlier living;
set us free and grant us peace.
4. Send us, God of new beginnings,
humbly hopeful into life.
Use us as a means of blessing:
make us stronger, give us faith.
5. Give us faith to be more faithful,
give us hope to be more true,
give us love to go on learning:
God! Encourage and renew!

SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

Genesis 45.1-15

Joseph has risen to power in Egypt. There is a famine in much of the Middle East, and Jacob (Israel) has sent ten of his sons to buy grain, but has kept Benjamin, son of his first wife and full brother of Joseph, at home. When they seek to buy grain, they are accused of spying; as surety that they will return with Benjamin, they must leave Simeon behind in Egypt. To lose Benjamin would break Jacob's heart, (with Joseph gone, only Benjamin can inherit) but the old man agrees to his heir joining his brothers on the second trek to Egypt. When they depart for home with the grain, Joseph has them arrested for stealing: he has had his silver cup placed in Benjamin's pack, where it is found, so Benjamin is detained. Judah pleads for Benjamin's release, saying that he expects Jacob to die if Benjamin fails to return home. And here our reading begins.

Joseph can no longer hide himself from his brothers. He dismisses his courtiers, to be alone with his family: this is a personal affair. He identifies himself (v. 3) and then (vv. 5-8) explains the theology behind what has happened to him: God has worked through his brothers. By selling him into slavery, he says, "God sent me before you to preserve life." God acts in history, through special people. It is Joseph's management of Egypt's grain stores that will keep Jacob's family (clan) alive through the famine. Israel, "a remnant on earth" (v. 7) will survive. God has even made Joseph "a father to Pharaoh" (v. 8), vizier or prime minister.

In v. 9, Joseph shows that he is eager to see his father again: "... do not delay". He offers them land in "Goshen" (v. 10), the fertile area east of the Nile delta. There they will be "near" (v. 10) him: this and other clues in this chapter place the story in time: the royal court was in lower Egypt during two periods; the Hyksos period (1720-1550 BC) fits this and other data in the story. Joseph forgives his brothers (v. 15).

Psalms 37.1-12, 39-40

It may seem that ungodly people succeed while those who follow God's ways face continual injustices, but the psalmist (a sage, v. 25) offers words of encouragement for the faithful from his own observations. A time will soon come when the ungodly ("wicked") "fade" as vegetation does when a dry east wind blows. God will care for the godly, giving them "the land", Palestine (as he promised to Abraham). He will not only bless the godly, but will also show all that the godly are on the right path (v. 6). Do not be upset by the transitory success of the ungodly, but "wait patiently" (v. 7), for the "wicked" (v. 9) will be "cut off" from any possibility of being with God; indeed, they will cease to exist (v. 10). Then "the meek" (those who are aware of their dependence on God) will "inherit the land" (v. 11), enjoy "prosperity", and live long lives ("forever", v. 29). Despite present experiences, God does deliver, and shelter the godly in bad times (v. 39). He does help, rescue, and save those who follow his ways (v. 40). 1

1 Corinthians 15.35-38, 42-50

Paul has written: "Christ has been raised from the dead ... so all will be made alive in Christ" (vv. 20-23) when he comes again. Will we have the same kind of bodies then as we have now? By analogy from nature (vv. 36-38), Paul points out that: (1) seeds need to die in order to have new life; (2) they change state following death: plants have different bodies (forms) from seeds; (3) God chooses the body of a plant; and (4) seeds look alike but are changed into a variety of plants. There are various kinds of bodies, "flesh" (v. 39) and "glory" (vv. 40-41), so there may be more meanings of these terms than we know.

In resurrection, our state is changed: before it, we are subject to decay ("perishable", v. 42) and death ("dishonour", "weakness") and have a "physical body" (v. 44); after it, we will be immortal ("imperishable") and have "glory", "power", and a "spiritual body", . So there must be two modes of existence, and two bodies. There are two prototypes: "the first man, Adam" (v. 45) and "the last Adam", Christ. Adam received life; Christ is "life-giving". The "first" was earthly, physical, "a man of dust" (v. 47), and the "last" heavenly, so the physical came first (v. 46) contrary to what some claimed. Correspondingly we bear the image of (have the same kind of body as) Adam now; and will have bodies like Christ's (vv. 48- 49). In our present state ("flesh and blood", "perishable", v. 50) we cannot participate (fully) in God and in immortality ("the imperishable") .

Luke 6.27-38

Jesus has told his disciples (probably in the hearing of a crowd) whom God will favour when Christ comes again: those who are now "poor" (v. 20), "hungry" (v. 21), sorrowful and hated (v. 22) will be "blessed"; fortunes will be reversed.

Now he interprets his teachings to potential followers ("you that listen") in radical terms. He speaks to those now hated: bring before God ("bless", "pray for", v. 28) those who persecute you, and offer no resistance to anyone who deprives you of your most basic possessions, "your coat" (v. 29) and "your shirt". Reciprocating the love and loving actions already shown and taken by others is basic human behaviour (the cultural norm) and so does not warrant God's notice ("credit", vv. 32- 33). Even lending when you expect to be repaid is not enough (v. 34); rather love others by doing for them as you would wish they would do for you (v. 31, the Golden Rule), even when you are fairly sure they will do nothing for you ("enemies", v. 35). In doing so, you will be doing as God does; he gives even to those who reject his love ("ungrateful", grace-less) and work against him ("wicked"), without expecting recompense. Further, abstain from critical attitudes to others, "forgive" (v. 37) those indebted to you, and "give" (v. 38) freely. God will reward you very plenteously for your generosity.

ART COMMENTARY

The art on today's pewsheet is just one of several frescoes that once decorated Casa Bartholdy, a former room within the Palazzo Zuccero belonging to Prussian diplomat and art patron Jakob Bartholdy. The artist, Peter von Cornelius, was one of the main representatives of the artistic movement known as the Nazarene movement. The Nazarene's aimed to revive spirituality in art, and the frescoes in Casa Bartholdy were their first major opportunity to work in accordance with this concept. The specific fresco depicts the biblical scene of Joseph revealing himself to his brothers, showcasing the emotional reunion. Peter Cornelius is quoted as having said: "This work makes me the happiest of people, and even if I only had one crust of bread left, I would not change it ... In my breast there beats a sure, prophetic feeling that art will break through from here to a new, beautiful existence."

Endangered from 1825 onwards, in 1885, after many trial runs, they were sawn out together with the walls, detached from the masonry behind and re-attached to a wooden framework. In 1887 they were moved from Rome to Berlin where a room was set aside for them on the upper floor of the Nationalgalerie.
